

Sports Club Seminar

Wednesday 28th September

Dealing with a changing legal environment for sports clubs and organisations

INVITATION

INVITATION

Sports Club Seminar

Dealing with a changing legal environment for sports
clubs and organisations

Hosted by:

Sports Law Department,
Sweeney McGann Solicitors,
Limerick

III SWEENEY McGANN
SOLICITORS

Introducing Sweeney McGann Sports Law Department

Sweeney McGann provides the only specialist sports law service in the region working with clubs across all sporting codes, providing clubs with access to an in-depth resource for all legal matters, on and off the field.

Sweeney McGann are legal advisors to Limerick GAA and continues to work extensively with GAA, Rugby, Football, Tennis and Rowing clubs in addition to sporting governing bodies.

Among the specialist services provided by our Sports Law Department are;

- Membership, Administration and Club Structure (including Guidance Rules and Club Constitution);
- Premises (Sale, Purchase, Lease, Licence) and Trustees;
- Finance, Banking, Developments, Grants;
- Registration and Liquor Licensing;
- Employment Issues;
- Health & Safety, including Personal Injuries and Third Party Claims; Civil Liability on the Sports Field, duties of coaches;
- Manager and Player Insurance Schemes;
- Player Safety, including Discipline, Sanctions and Child Welfare Issues;
- Contracts and Payments to Players and Supporting Staff;
- Event Management;
- Alternative Dispute Resolution (Prevention and Cure)
- Sports Ground Services.

Seminar Details

The Sports Club Seminar hosted by Sweeney McGann in association with the Limerick City and County Limerick local sports partnerships will address a broad range of issues that impact on the daily operation of clubs across all codes. The panel of experts will address issues from club administration of premises to club finance and licensing. It will also address topical issues that include discipline and alternative dispute resolution, child welfare and player safety to examining personal injury claims and third party claims against clubs, both on and off the pitch.

Date: Wednesday 28th September

Time: 7.30pm

Venue: Strand Hotel, Limerick

Registration from 7.00pm.
Seminar commences at 7.30pm

Seminar Speakers

Gearoid McGann

Managing Partner, Sweeney McGann
Overview of changing legal environment for all sports clubs and organisations

Ollie Moran

Player Injury Schemes – a new option in today's legal environment

Shane O'Neill

Partner and Head of Sports Law Department
Creating the legal structure for clubs – Prevention better than Cure

Jack Anderson

Queens University
Barrister and Lecturer in Sports Law Alternative Dispute Resolution & Club Transfer Issues

Followed by a Panel Discussion/Q&A

In association with

How to Book

Admission is complimentary for club representatives but places must be reserved in advance.

Book by email: send delegate names and club name to mellis@sweeneymcgann.com

Book by telephone: Reserve with Mairead Ellis on 061 317533

For confidential consultation please contact
Shane O'Neill, Partner in charge of Sports Law

Sweeney McGann
67 O'Connell Street
Limerick.

Telephone: 061 317533 / 418277

Fax: 061 319496

Email: enquiries@sweeneymcgann.com

Website: www.sweeneymcgann.com

Hosted in association with Limerick City & County Limerick Local Sports Partnerships